

Electrical Grounding and Bonding (NEC 2020)

Instructor

Todd Wilding

Phone

208 282-3372

Email

toddwilding@isu.edu

Office Location

RFC Room 184

Office Hours

Upon Request

Course Overview

This 8-hour class highlights one of the most important but least understood articles in the national Electric Code (NEC 2020) – Grounding and Bonding. Simple put, proper grounding and bonding protects you, your employees, your co-workers from electrical shock and your plant and equipment from heat and fire. The objective of this course is to reduce these risks and help answer any power quality issues you may experience.

Required Text

NFPA National Electric Code 2020

Instructor Materials

NFPA National Electric Code 2020

Mike Holt's Illustrated Guide to Understanding Requirements for Bonding and Grounding, 2020 NEC

Course Schedule

This is an 8-hour continuing education course which is provided by Idaho State University, Continuing Education/Workforce Training, during the spring season. This course may also be provided to individual companies as customized training.