

During this course you will learn benefit options and the selection criteria, how costs are determined, how to manage and control benefit costs and upcoming trends or changes to benefits impacting business owners.