Finding balance in an ever changing safety environment”
Jill Shupe and Chelly Heninger, Awareness is Key, Safety Solutions

- Covid19
- Job Loss/Layoffs
- Stress
- Delayed/Cancelled Projects

With all of these distractions happening around us, it is easy to lose focus on the Safety Cultural Climate of your Business. Join us as we explore ways to bring balance back to your Safety Culture and Focus on the Fatal Four.

9:00 am – 9:15 am Break/Vendor Time

9:15 am – 10:05 am Session 1

Carina Sowinski

Battalion Chief Robert Hooper

“Big Four: We Can Do Better”

Carina Sowinski, Safety Engineer II, Mortenson
Robert Hooper, Battalion Chief, St George Fire Department and Safety Consultant

Utah vs Nevada, a side-by-side comparison on the Big 4. We will look at the data pulled from the OSHA website for citations comparing Utah and Nevada, specifically for the Big 4 with construction (electrical hazards, fall hazards, struck-by and caught-in or between). We will also look at numbers in comparison to per capita citations and dollar amounts. Learn how to do the right thing in regards to compliance when nobody's watching!

10:05 am – 10:20 am Break/Vendor Time

10:20 am – 11:10 am Session 2

Jill Shupe

Chelly Heninger

“New Hire Orientation to Retain Employees with a Great Safety Culture”

Jill Shupe and Chelly Heninger, Awareness is Key, Safety Solutions

- How can you attract and retain the best employees in the business?
- How do you set clear expectations for safety performance from day 1?
- How do you ensure your employees are engaged and set up to build your culture?

Join us as we answer these questions and explore innovative orientation strategies.
