

Karen Halliday has been a strategic human resources consultant and business owner advocate with BBSI since January 2018. She has 25 plus years' experience in the HR field at the manager and director level. She has had the privilege of supporting large corporations including 7-Eleven, Blockbuster, Home Depot, and Taco Bell. Karen continues to consult for Taco Bell as an independent contractor. Her professional passion is to help business owners become successful.

Karen received her Bachelor's Degree in Business Management from the University of Phoenix. She is a current member of SHRM and is both SHRM-CP and PHR certified.

In Karen's spare time, she loves to do anything outdoors. She enjoys skiing, hiking, camping, backpacking, water fun, traveling and hanging out with her big family.
