

Cheryl Wilde

Cheryl bring 15 years of Corporate training experience, with companies like GTE Health Systems, American Express, Assist International and the Noah Corporation. She has done internal and external training and consulting, and taught large-group training sessions. Cheryl has taught management skills classes and facilitated team building sessions for employees.

Cheryl has a B.A. in Human Resource development. In addition to her training experience, Cheryl is also a technical writer, producing technical training manuals, instructional guides and supplemental materials for her training classes.

Fun Fact - Cheryl speaks Korean, likes to travel and loves to make authentic kimchi.