

Instructor Information

Scott Halle is the Training and Compliance Administrator for the North Dakota State Electrical Board, duties include developing and conducting the Board's continuing education classes throughout the state, evaluating continuing education classes submitted for approval in North Dakota, assisting in code interpretation questions from the public and Board employees, and promoting the electrical trade in the state of North Dakota. Scott has an Associate of Applied Science degree in Electrical Technology from the North Dakota State College of Science, and currently is licensed as a Master Electrician in North Dakota and a Journeyman Electrician in Minnesota. Scott is certified by the North Dakota Department of Career and Technical Education as an Electrical Instructor. Scott is also the Secretary/Treasurer of the North Dakota Chapter International Association of Electrical Inspectors, responsible for organizing and conducting the chapters annual education meeting held each year. Scott has been employed by the North Dakota State Electrical Board for eleven years, first as a district electrical inspector, then as an administrator. Prior to that he worked in the electrical industry as an electrician, project foreman, maintenance electrician at a hospital and at a manufacturing facility, and as an instructor of a two-year electrical program.