

Mark Kuhn is currently a Distribution Manager at the Wasatch Restoration Center for Rocky Mountain Power. Manages the day-to-day operations of an electric utility in a geographic territory, region, location or functional unit that has a significant impact on corporate, business unit or organizational objectives. Establishes and implements business objectives, strategies, and plans. Manages and allocates financial and employee resources. Implements and supports company programs and policies. Responsible for establishment and adherence to department budget. Develop innovative leadership techniques that will improve the safety of each employee group and the quality of work each employee group performs in an effort to improve efficiencies.

Prior to employment as a Distribution Manager, Mark spent 25 years as an Estimator, 2 years as a Site Agent and 2 years as an Assistant Manager in Transmission and Distribution Infrastructure Management. Mark has 44 years of service with PacifiCorp.

Mark Joined the Board of Directors for Blue Stakes of Utah 811 since September of 2021.