

RICH THATCHER

Instructor

800.922.2820

nttinc.com

Intro

Rich holds an Electrical Master License (CO). He has taught for Red Rocks Community College and the Denver Joint Electrical Apprenticeship Training Committee for Emily Griffith Opportunity School as well as for NTT Training.

Rich is a member of (NFPA) National Fire Protection Association, (IAEI) International Association of Electrical Inspectors Association, and the (IBEW) International Brotherhood of Electrical Workers.

Rich is also familiar with installation and pre-construction planning, purchasing practices, construction management.

Professional Experience

Red Rocks Community College

- Electrical Department Head – Construction Technology Department

D.J.E.A.T.C./EMILY GRIFFITH Opportunity School – Instructor

- Second year apprenticeship curriculum, including: Grounding and Bonding, Journeyman Code - National Electric Code, Mathematics, Pipe Bending, Blueprint Reading,

Douglas County and City of Lakewood –Electrical Inspector

- Commercial and residential electrical inspections

Grand Electric – Project Manager

- Large tenant finish projects

Ludvik Electric – Foreman

- Commercial design-build projects

NTT Instructor since 2003

- National Electric Code® [NEC]
- Grounding and Bonding
- Electrical Safety [NFPA 70E]

Education and Training

- University of Tennessee – Bachelor Degree, Industrial Education
- Red Rock Community College – Associate Degree:
  - Applied Science – Electricity
  - Applied Science – Construction
  - Arts – General Studies
- Colorado State University – Certification Post Secondary Education for Vocational Electrical Trades
- Denver Joint Electrical Apprenticeship [four (4) year program]

Industries Served

- Aerospace
- Water / Waste Water
- Agriculture
- Food Processing
- Government & Military
- Manufacturing
- Mining
- Pharmaceuticals
- University Campus