

INSTRUCTOR PROFILE

JIM BOSSHART

PROFESSIONAL EXPERIENCE

Jim Bosshart is an electrical safety, NEC® and an industrial electricity instructor for NTT. Jim is a published author with over 20 years of practical industry experience.

Training Experience

- Electrical apprenticeship instructor for ABA
- NEC, supervisory skills, project management and electrical estimating instructor for SElectrical Training Solutions
- NEC journeyman and trainee instructor for Construction Industry Training Council (WA)
- Faculty Associate, ASU, Del E. Webb School of Construction
- Electrical instructor for East Valley Institute of Technology, Phoenix, AZ

Experience

- Co-owner, vice-president and electrical administrator, Aurora Electric, Inc. for 17 years—$12 million, 100 employee contractor in Alaska
- Journeyman and foreman
- ABA Workforce Development Director

Author

- iTi Supervisory Training Program, Instructor Manual, 2008
- iTi Supervisory Training Program, Student Manual, 2008
- Book review: User's Guide to the National Electrical Code 2008
- Curriculum writer for IECA Apprenticeship Student Manual

PROFESSIONAL LICENSES AND CERTIFICATIONS

- Approved Instructor WA L&I
- Alaska Electrical Administrators Master License
- Alaska Electrical Journeyman License
- Washing Electrical Administrators Master License
- Washing Electrical Journeyman License
- NATE Electrical Certification
- NCCER Master Trainer & NCCER Certified Instructor

INDEPENDENT ELECTRICAL CONTRACTORS ASSOCIATION

- Founder IEC Alaska Chapter Electrical Apprenticeship School
- National Journeyman Continuing Education Committee – Chairman
- National Apprenticeship and Training Committee – Board Member and Secretary
- Alaska Chapter President and Representative for National Board of Directors
- Interviewer at National Electrical Apprentice of the Year Competition