

Todd S. Laker 6055 E Croydon Rd, Morgan UT 84050
todd.laker@holcim.com

Experience

Holcim (US) Croydon, UT 2002-Present

Technical Service Engineer

- Manage and oversee the service of all customers in regard to quality and technical assistance for the Devil's Slide Market corporate portfolio including mix design, optimization and troubleshooting of plastic and hardened concrete properties
- Represent Holcim (US) with the major industry associations and government agencies such as AGC, ACI, ACPA, the Salt Lake Chamber of Commerce and UDOT
- Project manager for new environmentally responsible product development, market analysis and manufacturing for the Devil's Slide Market. USGBC LEED subject matter expert
- Execute corporate and product specific presentations and lectures to construction industry management, personnel and scholastic institutions
- Part-time faculty member at Brigham Young University teaching Concrete Mix Design and Analysis, Winter 2009

Hughes Construction North Salt Lake, UT 2001-2002

Construction Management Intern

- Operated and executed all areas and disciplines while assisting in the end-to-end construction of Heritage Elementary School in Kaysville, UT
- Assisted Project Manager with estimating, bidding, corporate customer service and project management

Professional Associations

American Concrete Institute, Intermountain Chapter 2007-2009

President

US Green Building Council, Utah Chapter 2008-Present

Education Committee Chair

Education

Bachelor of Science, Weber State University 2003

Construction Management

Honors: AIC Associate Contractor Level I (2003)

USGBC LEED Accredited Professional June 2007

Activities / Interests

- WSU Parson Construction Management Advisory Board Member
- Eagle Scout, enjoy outdoors, off road sports, and spending time with family