

David Clough is a Technical Service Instructor at Wheeler Machinery with over 10 years of experience in Heavy Construction and Mining Equipment Industry. David not only has BS in Mechanical Engineering but also an MBA with an Operations Management focus. He is well versed in Failure Analysis as well as equipment maintenance, assembly, and repair. Not only does he have 2+ years of experience with Mine Rescue Training and Underground Firefighting, David is also Bilingual speaking both Spanish and English fluently. When he's not training a class or spending time with his family he is an avid cyclist, he has even been known to ride his bike to work in a snow storm!