

David T. Lancaster, M.S., LVRC, CRC

David received his undergraduate degree in Fine Arts from the University of Arizona in 1984. He relocated to Los Angeles and graduated with a Masters Degree in Rehabilitation Counseling in 1989 from California State University – Los Angeles.

David has been a practicing vocational rehabilitation counselor in the private sector since 1988 and has worked in a variety of States: California, Hawaii, Arizona, Nevada and Utah. He had his own business for several years and has also worked for many of the biggest private vocational rehabilitation firms. David currently is employed as a Senior Vocational Rehabilitation Counselor with Workers Compensation Fund.

David has served and held offices on the board of several vocational rehabilitation organizations to include: California Association of Rehabilitation Professionals (CARP), Hawaii Association of Rehabilitation Professionals in the Private Sector (HARPPS), International Association of Rehabilitation Professionals (IARP). He is currently a Board Member the Utah Rehabilitation Association (URA).