

Michele Brewer

Current position since 2007; Safety & DOT Coordinator; Wheeler Machinery Co.

Previous Wheeler positions:

2000-2001 – Service Department Work Order Controller

2002-2005 – Kennecott Mine Truck B & C Fleet Contract Work Order Controller/Admin

2006-2007 - Fluids Analysis Lab Technician

Education.

- Studied at University of Utah in Environmental Safety & Health
- Studied at Rocky Mountain Center for Occupational Health
- Fleet Safety and DOT Compliance with the Utah Trucking Association
- Certified First Responder with the DOT and American Heart Association
- CCJ training symposiums

Current Position Role:

Coordinate and manage DOT compliance companywide. Provide new driver and ongoing refresher training from development to implementation and facilitation.

Driver safety management program to enhance overall driver safety and awareness. Responsible for maintaining accurate records and the ongoing monitoring and auditing of driver records and daily logs to achieve 100% compliance at all times.

Assist Safety and Compliance Manager with company safety programs and development of annual Safe Manager training. Assist Safety and Compliance Manager in coordinating OSHA, MSHA compliance monitoring. Working with the Safety and Compliance Manager conducting accident and near miss investigations. Responsible for workers compensation claim tracking and claim management with an emphasis in light duty facilitation. Coordinate First Responder, Employee Safety Committee and Emergency Preparedness groups.