

Kevin Taulbee, CSP OHST

EMPLOYMENT HISTORY

2017 – Present: e-Hazard Electrical Safety Instructor

2016 – Present: Electrical Engineer – PowerStudies, Inc., Maple Valley, WA

PROJECT SUPPORT

- Perform short circuit, protective device coordination, harmonics analysis, motor starting, generator sizing, power factor correction and arc flash for industrial, commercial, and governmental clients
- Review project data prior to completion
- Create Impedance Drawings
- Compile and deliver final reports for power system studies

CUSTOMER RELATIONS AND SERVICE

- Customer liaison for determining current project status
- Provide support in contacting contractors and engineers to obtain information needed to perform studies
- Serve as company representative working with engineers, owners, and manufacturing Clients
- Electrical safety training courses

2007-2015: OSHA, Kentucky

Senior Safety Consultant Region 4 – Division of Education & Training – Frankfort, KY

2005-2007: OSHA, Kentucky

Safety Compliance Office Region 4 – Division of Compliance -Frankfort, KY

CERTIFICATIONS

- Certified Safety Professional (CSP)
- Certified Occupational Health and Safety Technologist (OHST)
- Level One Certified Auditor for process safety management (PSM-1)
- OSHA Authorized General Industry Training (10 & 30-hour training)

EDUCATION

- B.S., Electrical Engineering – University of North Dakota – 2016
- B.S., Electronics Engineering Technology – DeVry University – 2013
- B.A., Political Science – Transylvania University - 2005