

INSTRUCTOR PROFILE

DENNIS HALL

NTT Instructor since 2001

PROFESSIONAL EXPERIENCE

US Air Force

- Electrician, Lineman, Instructor Worldwide duties as electrician and lineman. Instructor in electrical program from 1974 – 1977 at technical training center in both advanced and basic curriculum.

Idaho Power Company

- Lineman - Journeyman Construction Lineman working on distribution and transmission construction projects.
- Safety & Security Supervisor - First Safety & Security Supervisor in Idaho Power's Construction Department. Established safety practices and culture for linecrews, substation electricians, relay technicians, transformer shop, metal shop, garage, and electric shop. Conducted safety audits, visits, classes, safety meetings, and acted as consultant to crafts and supervisors on matters of safety and security.
- Instructor - Researched, designed, developed, implemented, taught, and administered Company's first Bureau of Apprenticeship and Training-approved Lineman Training Program that included OJT, formal classes, and independent-study.
- Manager, Training Department - Supervised a staff of up to 7 instructors that dealt with all aspects of training for an electric utility. Personally researched, designed, developed, implemented, taught, maintained, and administered.

EDUCATION AND TRAINING

- 1976 Wayland Baptist University, Plainview, TX (BS in Occupational Education -- Business/ Electrical Technology)
- 1976 Community College of the AF (Associate of Applied Science – Instructor Technology)
- 1977 Community College of the AF (Associate of Applied Science – Electrical Technology)
- 1984 University of Idaho (Master of Education – Administration)

PARTIAL CLIENT LIST

- U.S. Mint
- Lockheed Martin
- Access Electric
- Constellation Brands
- California State University

