

INSTRUCTOR PROFILE

TERRANCE RONALD KONELL, CSP, CESP, USN RET.

NTT Instructor since 2013

PROFESSIONAL EXPERIENCE

T/C Risk Management Services LLC

- Establishing, directing, coordinating and evaluating the overall effectiveness of safety and occupational health programs, policies, plans, and procedures.
- Develop and conduct safety and health training programs, that support safety and occupational health programs policies and procedures to help ensure employee knowledge and proficiency.
- Conducts audits and evaluations of clients facilities and jobs sites to evaluate effectiveness of education and overall effectiveness of safety programs, policies, plan, and procedures, providing recommendations for improvement.

United Heartland

- Mentored and provided professional advice and technical assistance to field personnel enabling effective loss control services to our insured's.
- Write and revise corporate policies and procedures, to ensure tools and techniques for field personnel compliant and up to date with OSHA and industry standards.

Dept. of Labor / OSHA Training Institute

- Conducting classroom training in a wide range of highly technical and complex subjects interviewing strategies, specifically I teach: Safety and Health Management Systems, Construction Basics, and Initial Compliance Class as related to occupational safety and health concepts, hazard analysis, legal aspects of related laws and regulations, compliance process, policies, and procedures, and OSHA standards.

EDUCATION AND TRAINING

- Board of Certified Safety Professionals (BCSP)
- Columbia Southern University
- OSHA Training Institute

PARTIAL CLIENT LIST

- Enbridge Energy
- Koch Nitrogen
- Naval Service Warfare Center
- Lockheed Martin – Cape Canaveral
- Great Lakes Naval Training Center

