

Andrew Berne

Mr. Berne is an associate at Babcock Scott & Babcock. He practices construction law and related litigation. He aids in the firm's representation of architects, engineers, general contractors, subcontractors, material suppliers and owners.

Prior to attending law school, Mr. Berne was able to use his construction management degree while he built homes in central Oregon. While there, Mr. Berne was intricately involved with subcontractors, material suppliers, local government officials, and owners.