TIME: 7:00am-4:00pm

COST: $125.00

REGISTRATION DEADLINE: Monday, May 14, 2018

EDUCATION CREDIT VALUE: 8 Contractor & Plumber Professional Credit Hours

About the Course

Lean Construction has been both hailed as the next big thing and dismissed as a fad. However Dennis Sowards will clear the air and set the record straight on why Lean Construction should be applied to your everyday operations. He will use a straightforward approach with real-life examples to show attendees how subcontractors can apply Lean. This workshop will explore why Contractors should be using Lean, the Principles of Lean, and the Tools for Lean. Dennis will also show practical uses for Lean in Service and becoming a leader in Lean implementation.

Attendees will learn why they should apply Lean, gain an understanding the principles of Lean, and how to use Lean in service. Finally attendees will examine the tools for Lean using the 5 S's Effectively, Doing Useful Muda Walks, Applying the Last Planner System, and other useful Lean Tools.
