

Bio – Seth Plaizier, P.E., Supervisor Region Operations, Park City Operations, Dominion Energy

Seth Plaizier has 17 years' of experience in the natural gas distribution industry working for Dominion Energy (formerly Questar Gas). Seth has experience in meter reading, engineering and project management over High Pressure transmission pipeline projects, distribution pipelines projects, meter and regulation and odorant facilities, gate stations projects, industrial meters sets, and directed the Belt Line Replacement Program. For the past four years his primary responsibilities include managing and directing daily operations and natural gas related emergencies for the Company's Park City office which services Summit and Wasatch Counties. Seth enjoys being in a job which provides a service to the communities in which he lives, serving in his church, and spending time with his family. This is his second year working with the Utah Pipeline Association and Seth is serving in the Office of Secretary for the Association.